

HOLY FAMILY CATHOLIC PARISH

OCTOBER 2026 BULLETIN

CHALLENGE FOR OCTOBER

We are still learning to appreciate our new sanctuary here at Holy Family Church and the nooks and crannies around the facility. Apart from our local worshipping, have you ever attended Mass at a huge cathedral or basilica such as Notre Dame in Paris or St. Peter's in Rome or the Cathedral of St. Mary of the Assumption in San Francisco? If so, the size is over-whelming, and there are parts of those churches with different names that we may not be aware of. Do you know the meanings of these liturgical and ecclesiastical terms? [A] Apse; [B] Nave; [C] Transept; [D] Narthex; [E] Chancel; [F] Vestibule; [G] Pulpit; [H] Ambo; [I] Lectern; [J] Sacristy.

See the answers on page 5.

Holy Family Prayer

May God bless each family present and bless our entire Holy Family Parish. Make it like the family of your Son. May our moments of sorrow give way to the seasons of joy. May the memory of harsh words fade before the warmth of a loving touch. May the tears of sorrow be replaced by the music of laughter. May resentment be banished from our families. And may forgiveness reign in our hearts today and everyday. Amen.

OCTOBER CHILDREN'S HOLY ROSARY

Saturday, October 3rd, 2026 | 2:00 PM
Holy Family Catholic Church, American Canyon,
California, 94503

PASTOR'S CORNER

My Dear Parishioners, I thank God for seeing us through another beautiful month. The month of October is coming. It is the month of the recitation of the Holy Rosary. I encourage you all to begin to look for your rosary and join me in praying for the success of our dear parish, Holy Family. God is always on our side and if we continue to cling unto Him, He will give us joy, peace, long life and prosperity.

I would like to thank all the parishioners and our loved ones who are joining the Knights of Columbus in the pew drive to make it a success. We have made pledges and now it is time to bring our contributions for the new pews to become a reality.

We have also begun thinking about our new Church, and as we progress, I will lay bare what we need to do. October 30th is our fundraising Dinner Dance at the Filipino Hall on Amador St, Vallejo. I hope to see you all there. Let's together make it a great success. Once again I would like to thank you all who make our parish great. May God bless you all. I remain.

Father Frederick Kutubebi, Pastor

OCTOBER CHALLENGE

Are you familiar with any of these church architectural terms?

[A] Check the diagram below: an apse is the large semi-circular recess in a cathedral or basilica, with a dome roof, under which sits the altar. It comes from the Latin word for "arch."

[B] Check the diagram below: a nave is the central part of a church, intended to accommodate most of the congregation.

[C] Check the diagram below: the transept is either of the two parts forming the arms of a cross (as can be seen from the overhead view) that project out from the nave; from the Latin word for "transverse."

[D] The narthex is a porch over the entrance of some churches where catechumens would be required to sit.

[E] The chancel is a part of the church near the altar reserved for clergy or choir members, usually up a set of stairs and facing the altar perpendicularly.

[F] Vestibule comes from a Latin word for "entrance." It is the hall or lobby just inside the outer doors of a church. Holy Family Church has a vestibule where some sit to attend Mass.

[H] An ambo is a type of pulpit; but instead of the stairs being hidden, it is an oblong raised dais with visible steps at either end. See the picture above right.

[I] And a lectern? Holy Family Church has one, which is a stand with sloping top to hold books or notes that a lector or preacher stands behind to read or sermonize.

[J] Holy Family also has a sacristy: a room where the priest prepares for Mass and where vestments are kept.

HOLY FAMILY YOUTH GROUP

Remember that the Youth Ministry will be meeting this school term every Sunday afternoon at church from 2:00 to 4:00 pm (except October 11th). See page 2.

WHAT'S SO SPECIAL ABOUT 10/3?

October 3, 2026 happens to be the 800th anniversary of the death of St. Francis of Assisi who passed away on that date in 1226. The Church is celebrating a special jubilee that will continue until this coming January.

Francis was born into a wealthy family but renounced earthly riches to embrace the needs of the poor and marginalized. He was ordained and set his time to drawing others into his ministry, founding the Franciscan Order (which he titled the Order of Friars Minor). A follower of his, by the name of Clare, founded a companion order for nuns (which she titled the Order of Poor Ladies or Poor Clares). Both orders remain strong today in numbers and ministry, serving the spiritually and materially poor in ministries such as hospitals, orphanages, schools, social service outreaches and retreat centers around the world.

When Pope Francis chose that papal name (the first Pope to take that moniker), he explained his choice of name to honor Francis whom he said was "the man of poverty, the man of peace, the man who loves and protects creation."

A number of parishes in the greater Bay Area have St. Francis as their patron (San Francisco, Sacramento, Concord, and - in our own diocese - Sonoma which is named for a follower of St. Francis of Assisi).

From October 16 to November 28, in commemoration of the 800th anniversary of the death of St. Francis of Assisi, sacred relics and treasures from Assisi will be on display at the Cathedral of St. Mary of the Assumption in San Francisco. The faithful are invited to make a pilgrimage and encounter the extraordinary witness of St. Francis and St. Clare through these sacred treasures.

SUNDAY MASS READINGS FOR OCTOBERSunday, September 27th (26th Sunday in Ordinary Time)

A reading from the Book of Ezekiel 18:25-28 - Who's ways are unfair - the Lord's ways or humans' ways? If someone turns from wickedness and does what is right and just, that person will preserve his life.

Responsive Psalm 25:4-5, 6-7, 8-9 - "Remember your mercies, O Lord."

Epistle Reading from Paul's Letter to the Philippians 2:1-11 - Do not act with selfishness or vanity, Paul tells the people. Have the same love, compassion and mercy as did Christ Jesus. Though Jesus was God, He emptied Himself, becoming human and He became obedient to God in all things. Because of that, God exalted Him, so much so that at the name of Jesus, every knee should bend, every head should bow, and every tongue should profess that Jesus is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

Gospel of Matthew 21:28-32 - Jesus challenged the chief priests and elders with this conundrum: If a son tells his father that he will not work in the fields, but goes ahead later and works anyway; while the other sons tells his father that he will go and work, but does not, which one did the father's will? Of course, they answer: "the first one." So Jesus tells His audience that in the same regard, sinners are entering the Kingdom of God before they do because in the end, others repent and do the will of the Father.

Sunday, October 4th (27th Sunday in Ordinary time)

A reading from Isaiah 5:1-7 - Isaiah tells the story of a friend's vineyard that produces wild grapes and becomes trampled and overgrown with thorns. So too, the Lord's house of Israel has been overgrown and lacks judgment.

Responsive Psalm 80:9, 12-16, 19-20 - "The vineyard of the Lord is the house of Israel."

Epistle Reading from St. Paul's Letter to the Philippians 4:6-9 - Paul tells the people to make their requests known to God by prayer and petition. Continue doing what they have learned and heard from Paul, and the peace of God will be with them.

Gospel of Matthew 21:33-43 - Another parable of a landowner and his vineyard: The owner went on a journey and left things to the tenants. When the owner sent his servants to the tenants to obtain his produce, the servants were abused and killed. Then the owner sent his son, who too was seized and killed. The landowner would rightly kick out the tenants, just as God will kick out those who abuse His loved ones.

Sunday, October 11th (28th Sunday in Ordinary Time)

A reading from Isaiah 25:6-10 - God will provide food and drink for all peoples on the mountain of the Lord. He will destroy death forever. He will wipe away all tears. Let us rejoice and be glad for He has saved us. The hand of the Lord will rest forever on this mountain.

Responsive Psalm 23:1-6 - "I shall live in the house of the Lord all the days of my life."

Epistle Reading from St. Paul's Letter to the Philippians 4:12-14, 19-20 - Paul tells the people that he has lived in poverty and in abundance. God will fulfill all of the needs of all of the people. Glory be to God.

Gospel of Matthew 22:1-14 - Jesus tells the parable of the king who gives a wedding feast for his son, but the guests refuse to attend. He even sends his son to invite the guests, but they kill the son and ignored the invitation. The king then invited anyone from the street to be his guest and welcomed them.

Sunday, October 18th (29th Sunday in Ordinary Time)

A reading from Isaiah 45:1, 4-6 - The Lord has called Jacob by name to be His servant and given him a title. There is no other Lord but God. There is none besides me. I am the Lord.

Responsive Psalm 96:1, 3, 4-5, 7-8, 9-10 - "Give the Lord glory and honor."

Epistle Reading from Paul's First Letter to the Thessalonians 1:1-5 - Paul sends his peace to the people and reminds them that he is always praying for them. The people have been chosen by the power of the Holy Spirit and the hope of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Gospel of Matthew 22:15-21 - The Pharisees tried to trap Jesus by asking Him whether they should pay the census tax to Caesar (who proclaimed himself a god). Jesus asked them to show a coin of the real which had Caesar's inscription on it. Jesus then told the to "repay to Caesar what belongs to Caesar and to God what belongs to God."

=====

Sunday, October 25th (30th Sunday in Ordinary Time)

A reading from Exodus 22:20-26 - The Lord told the Israelites that they should not oppress any alien, for they themselves were once aliens in Egypt. They should not wrong anyone or the Lord will hear their cries. They should be as compassionate as the Lord is to them.

Responsive Psalm 18:2-3, 3-4, 47, 51 - "I love you, Lord, my strength."

Epistle Reading from First Paul's Letter to the Thessalonians 1:5-10 - Paul tells the people that they have become models for others in other places where the faith of God has gone forth. They have turned to God and away from idols and await the coming of His Son from heaven who will deliver us from all evil.

Gospel of Matthew 22:34-40 - The Pharisees continued to challenge Jesus and asked Him which commandment of the law is the greatest. Jesus responded that the greatest is to love the Lord, your God, and the second is like it'd: to love your neighbor as yourself. These two are the greatest.

=====

Sunday, November 1st (Solemnity of All Saints)

A reading from the Book of Revelation 7:2-4, 9-14 - The vision of John is told wherein he experiences angels and people from all nations and races. They stood before the throne and cried out in loud voices that Salvation comes from God who is seated on the throne and from the Lamb of God, Jesus.

Responsive Psalm 24:1-6 - "Lord, this is the people that longs to see your face."

Epistle Reading from the First Letter of John 3:1-3 - John tells of the love that the Father has bestowed on everyone. We are all God's children now; what we shall become has not yet been revealed to us. When it is revealed, we shall see Him as He really is.

Gospel of Matthew 5:1-12 - This is the Sermon on the Mount - the "Blessed be's" as it were. Each characteristic we might possess (meekness, merciful, peacemaker, righteousness, mournful, etc.) will be recognized and approved by the Lord and you will have your troubles wiped away, for your reward will be great in heaven.
