OCTOBER 2023 BULLETIN

CHALLENGE FOR OCTOBER

On October 4th, we celebrate the feast day of St. Francis of Assisi (the namesake for San Francisco and the patron of Pope Francis). Which of the following statements about St. Francis is (or are) false? [A] Francis came from a poor family in Assisi and had only one tunic and one pair of sandals to his name as a youth. [B] As a twenty year old, Francis enlisted in the local military to do battle against a neighboring province. [C] Francis had a vision at the local church of San Damiano near Assisi in which Jesus spoke to him out of the mouth of the wooden cross. [D] Francis was the first person in the history of the Church to receive the stigmata, the physical wounds of the crucified Jesus. [E.] Francis founded the Franciscan Order of priests and brothers and named it the Order of Friars Minor (OFM), indicating that its members were subservient to all those in need and should minister to everyone in society especially the poor. See page 7 for the answer to this month's challenge.

HOLY FAMILY PRAYER

May God bless each family present and bless our entire Holy Family Parish. Make it like the family of your Son. May our moments of sorrow give way to the seasons of joy. May the memory of harsh words fade before the warmth of a loving touch. May the tears of sorrow be replaced by the music of laughter. May resentment be banished from our families. And may forgiveness reign in our hearts today and everyday. Amen.

Thanks to those already using E-giving (see above).

UPCOMING

Q: Why do ghosts like to travel to the Holy Lands for vacation? A: They want to visit the Dead Sea!

The only ghost around here is the Holy Ghost!

FATHER FRED'S CORNER

My Dear Parishioners, greetings to you all.

I hope everybody is doing well. My prayers are always with you. I know periodically we go through some sufferings, difficulties and hardships. Even as now a lot of parishioners and their families are dealing with challenges that make them want to lose hope and faith in God. That is the way it is and we have to learn to deal with it supported by enough prayers. And when your strength cannot cope, please, know that we exist as a group and faith community to support you in any way we can.

This month of October is Rosary month and so let us all grab our rosaries and pray through the intercession of Our Blessed Mother to graciously assist us in our struggles here on earth. She is Our Refuge and we need to seek her every moment of our lives and cry to her in prayer.

We will be starting fundraising to support our loan and we will let you all know how it goes. Warm greetings to you all from the Pastor's Desk. May God bless you. AMEN.

- - -Your Pastor, Father Frederick K.A. Kutubebi

---

October 7th is the Feast of Our Lady of the Rosary!

HALLOWEEN

Q: Why don't skeletons play music at church? A: They don't have organs.

Take a pumpkin with you to church and see if it will preach from the pulp-it.

SUNDAY MASS READINGS FOR OCTOBER

Sunday, October 1st (Twenty-sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time)

First Reading from Ezekiel 18:25-28 - If someone says that the Lord's way is not fair, is that the Lord's way or their ways that are unfair? If a virtuous person turns toward iniquity, they will die. But if a wicked person turns away from wickedness and does what is right and just, he shall preserve his life.

Responsive Psalm 25:4-5, 6-7, 8-9 - "Remember your mercies, O Lord."

Epistle Reading from St. Paul's Letter to the Philippians 2:1-11 - Paul preaches to the people: Maintain a mind full of the Spirit and of Christ. Maintain compassion, mercy and love. Do nothing out of selfishness or vanity. Be humble and look out for others. Maintain the same attitude as in Christ Jesus who humbled Himself, becoming obedient even to the point of death. At the name of Jesus, every knee should bend and every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord.

Gospel of Matthew 21:28-32 - Jesus preached to the chief priests and elders the story of the two sons: one who said he would not work in the father's vineyard, but did so anyway. And the other who said he would work in the father's vineyard, but stayed home instead. Jesus asked them which son did the father's will. He then admonished the priests and elders who spoke a good story but did not act it out. On the other hand, tax collectors changed their ways and were saved.

Sunday, October 8th (Twenty-seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time)

First Reading from Isaiah 5:1-7 - Isaiah sings a song and tells a story of a friend who worked a vineyard. How one takes care of the vineyard determines whether it will yield fruit, So too, the vineyard of the Lord is the House of Israel and the people must take care of it to produce a ripe harvest.

Responsive Psalm 80:9, 12, 13-14, 15-16, 19-20 - "The vineyard of the Lord is the house of Israel."

Epistle Reading from St. Paul's Letter to the Philippians 4:6-9 - Have no anxiety. Use request and petition and thanksgiving to pray to God. Take your example from me, Paul says, and the God of peace will be with them.

Gospel of Matthew 21:33-43 - Jesus tells the chief priests and elders another parable: it's a challenging metaphor of a vineyard owner who leased his land to tenants. At the time of harvest, the owner sent servants to retrieve the grapes, but the tenants killed the servants. The owner sent more servants but they were treated the same. So he sent his son - surely they would respect the son; but they killed him also(!). Jesus asks what the owner should do with the wretched servants, and they said kill them and lease to another tenant who will respect the father and his crops. Jesus says, exactly; the kingdom of God will be given to those who will produce the fruit.

Sunday, October 15th (Twenty-eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time)

First Reading from Isaiah 25:6-10 - The Lord will provide for all peoples with rich food and choice wines. The Lord will destroy death forever. The Lord will wipe away tears from every face. Let us rejoice in the Lord.

Responsive Psalm 23:1-4, 5, 6 - "I shall live in the house of the Lord all the days of my life."

Epistle Reading from St. Paul's Letter to the Philippians 4:12-14, 19-20 - Paul says that he knows how to live in abundance and how to live in humble conditions. God will fully supply what the people need in the riches of Christ Jesus. Give glory forever to God.

Gospel of Matthew 22:1-14 - Yet another parable to the priests and elders: the metaphor to heaven is that a king prepared a wedding for his son. The king sent his servants to round up the invited guests, but each invitee had an excuse for not attending the wedding and treated the servants poorly. So the king sent other servants out into the byways and told them to invite anyone they saw along the way since the wedding feast was ready. One of those was not properly dressed and the king sent him back into the streets, for many are invited but few are chosen.

Sunday, October 22nd (Twenty-ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time - World Mission Sunday)

First Reading from Isaiah 45:1, 4-6 - Isaiah says that the Lord has called Cyrus by name and given him a title, that the Lord has anointed him, that Cyrus was armed and allowed to subdue nations in the name of the Lord. There is no other than the Lord God. Give the Lord all honor and glory.

Responsive Psalm 96:1, 3, 4-5, 7-8, 9-10 - "Give the Lord glory and honor."

Epistle Reading from St. Paul's First Letter to the Thessalonians 1:1-5 - Paul, Silvanus and Timothy write a letter to the Thessalonians in the name of God the Father and His Son Jesus Christ. They give thanks to God for the exemplary lives of the people and their faith and love to one another. They reminded the people that the good news of Christ came just through their words but also through the power of the Holy Spirit.

Gospel of Matthew 22:15-21 - The Pharisees were trying to entrap Jesus in His speech. They goaded Him by asking whether His followers should pay the census tax to Caesar (a Roman and not a Jew). Jesus told them to show Him a coin of the Roman realm and asked them whose face was on the coin. When they said "Caesar's," Jesus answered with the famous line: "Then render to Caesar what belongs to Caesar and to God what belongs to God."

Sunday, October 29th (Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time)

First Reading from the Book of Exodus 22:20-26 - The Lord instructs the Israelites not to oppress an alien and not to do any harm to orphans or widows. The Lord will hear the cries of those who are abused and His wrath will be shown. Similarly, do not extort money from your neighbor, and if you take his cloak as a pledge, return it before sundown for he has nothing else to sleep in. The Lord says that He hears all and is compassionate to all.

Responsive Psalm 18:2-3, 3-4, 47, 51 - "I love you, Lord, my strength.

Epistle Reading from St. Paul's First Letter to the Thessalonians 1:5-10 - Paul reminds the people that they became imitators of Paul when he was among them. And they spread the word of the Lord throughout the area. He commends the people for turning from idols to serve the true God and to await for the return of Jesus from heaven.

Gospel of Matthew 22:34-40 - The Pharisees continued to test Jesus by asking Him which was the greatest commandment? Jesus said that we should all love the Lord, our God, with all our heart and soul and mind. And that the second greatest is like the first that we should love our neighbor as ourself. Jesus said that "the whole law and the prophets depend on these two commandments."

Speaking of the two great commandments, don't forget the ten commandments given by God to Moses on Mount Sinai ==>

Have you been noticing that the Gospel readings this month have all been taken from the Gospel according to Matthew? In fact, this entire liturgical year has stressed Matthew's Gospel. This will continue through to the end of November to the Feast of Christ the King which is celebrated on November 26th. And then in December, we begin Advent and a new liturgical year that will run through 2024. During that next liturgical year, the Gospels on Sunday will generally be taken from Mark's Gospels which have a slightly different flavor than Matthew.

When the church's booster club served a lunch after Mass, all the people were disappointed because they only had enough money in their church budget to serve hollow weenies.

MONTHLY ROSARY

PRAY FOR PRAYERS

A children's rosary is held on the 1st Saturday of each month at Holy Family Church from 2 to 3 pm. All youth and their parents are invited to participate and pray together.

In the meantime, check out the following website for the Children's Rosary Society, a prayer group movement for children. Look for the video Children's Rosary - a View from Heaven to watch with your child: childrensrosary.org

We had the pleasure of Father John Boettcher filling in for Father Fred at all Masses and sacraments during August. We were spoiled by his prayer symposia after each weekend Mass.

Here are some tidbits that could be gleaned from his sharing with us about prayer: First, he made a recommendation that couples and families pray together every day for five minutes by reading scripture passages aloud to one another.

Second, we should set aside 3 minutes in the morning, 3 minutes during the day, and 3 minutes at night for prayer time. Bonus: at the end of your bedtime prayer, tell yourself to go to sleep with the remembrance to start your next day's prayer as soon as you wake up in the morning. It works!

Finally, he reminded us that prayer is between ourselves and God, but that is only half of the story: Prayer can too often be too passive; the actions that follow the prayer should be more concrete!!

Thanks again, Father John. We prayed that your trip to the Holy Lands was safe and spiritually invigorating for you and your group of pilgrims. Shalom!

"Wireless communication is nothing new. I've been praying for 75 years!"

What would Jesus do?

- Hang out with sinners.
Upset religious people.
Tell stories.
Eat meals with friends.
Go on long walks.
Take naps on boats.

And what might you do?

Thanks to the Knights of Columbus who donated profits from their recent dinner/dance to the "Pay Off the Loan" program in the amount of $5,000. The Knights will have a membership drive after all Masses on Oct 14-15. Tables will be set up with info manned by member knights to recruit new members and/or provide info about membership in the Knights. The October meeting of the Knights will be on the 26th at 7:00 PM CCD room.

LECTOR SCHEDULES

1st reader / 2nd reader

Right off the bat, [A] is incorrect. Quite the contrary, Francis was born into the family of a prosperous silk merchant in Italy and a French noblewoman mother, and he delighted in fine clothes and the high life. Now what about the other choices? All of the other statements are true. Here's some information about each:

[B] As a twenty year old, Francis did enlist in the local military to do battle against a neighboring province, and was wounded in battle and captured by the enemy forces. He remained in prison for a year until his father bailed him out by paying a ransom for his release.

[C] Upon returning home, Francis changed his worldly ways and spent time living in a cave asking God for spiritual enlightenment. While praying at the chapel of San Damiano near Assisi, the wooden figure of Jesus on the Cross spoke to him and told him to repair his church. Francis angered his father because of his non-worldly lifestyle and stripped him of his inheritance. Francis took up the cloak, staff and sandals of a beggar. He set out to literally rebuild some of the churches around Assisi and assist the ill and the poor; thus, he began figuratively to re-build the Church (with a capital "C").

[D] Indeed, Francis was the first person in the history of the Church to receive the stigmata, the physical wounds of the crucified Jesus. Francis shared in the sufferings of Christ in a very literal way: he bore the wounds of Christ crucified. He experienced wounds in hands, feet, and side, imposed upon him during a mystical experience.

[E.] Francis founded the Franciscan Order of priests and brothers and named it the Order of Friars Minor (OFM), indicating that its members were subservient to all those in need and should minister to everyone in society especially the poor. To this day, Franciscans wear simple brown robes with sandals and strive to cultivate the ideals of poverty and charity. Over the years, the Franciscan Order has popularized such practices as the Christmas crèche, Stations of the Cross and the Angelus. Besides their traditional role of preaching, Franciscans have been active in the work of foreign missions, including the establishment of numerous missions in the 1700s in California and Mexico under Franciscan St. Junipero Serra and others. They have also made many contributions to the field of education and scholarship,
